

Irina Zernova joined VISA in January 2014, where she works in capacity of Business Operations Director, responsible both for administration and operations within the company

From 2012-2013 Irina worked at Russian Regional Development Bank in December as the Head of Administration where she lead a team of 100 professionals and responsible for two offices in Moscow and 50 regional branches

From 2007 to 2012 Irina worked as Vice President, Head of Administration at Morgan Stanley Bank Russia and was responsible for administrative aspects of 9 European branches and also implemented a project of office relocation to a new class A venue (5,000 sq.m)

From 1994 to 2007 Irina worked as Vice President of Operations at the American Chamber of Commerce. Main responsibilities include working together with President and Board of directors on key administrative and operational issues, including staffing, budgets, office management.

Irina holds a bachelor's degree in English from Moscow State Linguistics University and also an MBA in Finance from California Heyward University.